

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Information

Date of Birth:

Surname: Noah

First Name: Shalom

Address:

Street Number/Street

City N

Country

Mobile:

E-Mail:

Work Experience

2005 – Today - An Officer in the Major Rank in the Permanent Military Service: After several months of civilian life, I returned to the military service after the receiving of application from the military authorities. In the framework of my function I responsible about detection of escort and high school and secondary reserve guidance of the Technology and Logistics Department of IDF. I am responsible of about ten thousand learners and of their escort, their guidance and their financing in various programs. In the framework of my function I engage in command, management framework, budget, working with various pedagogic factors, colleges' principals and government representatives, educational frameworks and pre-military programs establishment and management of staff that includes 60 direct employees and about 30 indirect employees.

2004-2005 - Service and Selling Representative of Cellular Company: After my military discharge from IDF I worked several months in the cellular company as Service and Selling Representative. In the framework of my work I was required to work with teamwork activity, to fulfill the goals, serviceability, responding and more.

2000-2004 – Regular and Permanent Military Service: During these years I was in the various and diverse guidance functions. I also learned Officers Course from IDF and I was a commander of the department. I managed complex frameworks that include about 30 employees in the very complex activity descriptors that include management, guidance and more.

1997-2001 - Lighting Department Manager in “ACE” Buy and Build across the Country: In the framework of my work I was revealed to various buying and selling methods, working against buyers, advanced management and more (the work was done during the studies).

Education and Training

2010-2011 – M.A. of Humanities from University of Haifa.

2005-2009 – B.A. of Humanities and Social Sciences from the Open University.

1998-2000 – “Hemelin” College of Engineering. I have a practical Engineer degree of Electricity and Electronics.

1994-1998 – “Ort Yad Leibovitz” Professional High School, Netanya. I have a full Matriculation Certificate in the specialization of Electricity and Electronics.

Courses and Advanced Studies

- 1. Advanced Command and Management Courses.
- 2. Advanced Guidance Courses.
- 3. Advanced Quality Courses.
- 4. Professional Courses in the Electricity and Electronics Field.

Languages

Hebrew – In the level of native language.

English – In the good level.

Personal Skills and Competences

Personal Skills: 1. Good interpersonal skills. 2. Ability to work under pressure. 3. Adaptation. 4. Reliability. 5. Responsibility. 6. Seriousness. 7. Extensive command and management experience.

Certificates of appreciation

- Chief Logistics Officer Award for 2013.
- Ordnance Corps Award for 2013.
- Ordnance Corps Award for 2009.
- Certificate of Appreciation from the chief of staff for 2009.
- Ordnance Corps Award for 2008.

Additional Information and Annexes

Computers: Full Computer Applications (PowerPoint, Outlook, Excel, Word).