

Kadusi Ayala

Summary

- ✓ Has a particularly high work ethic, extensive knowledge in educational pedagogy, parent training, working with children, parents and kindergarten teachers, working with a supervision and guidance team at the Ministry of Education.
- ✓ High self-learning, excellent interpersonal relations, initiative, responsible, charismatic.

Work Experience:

2015-2016 - Lecturer at the kindergarten teacher training center.

- Writing a syllabus and building training courses for kindergarten teachers.

2014 - 1997 - Ministry of Education and Culture - Director of kindergarten and teacher of district teachers - Northern District

- Management of the garden staff.
- Providing professional and personal responses to the needs of children and parents during and after the day.
- Locating difficult children and providing a professional solution to their difficulties
 - Work with the local authority and its departments, Educational Psychological Service, Mattei, Community Center.
 - Management of the gene money.
 - Responsibility for the training of the district preschool teachers for professional empowerment in the framework of their work.
 - Raising external resources for projects in the community.
 - Writing work plans for kindergartens.
 - Counseling and providing a professional and personal response to kindergarten teachers - observation, training and feedback.
 - Working with the supervision team in the Ministry of Education: coordination, assistance in setting up horticulture, guidance and guidance in regional initiatives

Education

- 1991 Full matriculation in the humanities track - ORT Horowitz Karmiel.
- 1996 - 1992 B.Ed in Teaching Hebrew Literature - Gordon College
- 1997 - Completion of kindergarten teacher - Oranim College
- 1997-2001 - M.A - Education Administration - University of Derby.
- 2007 - Mediation course within the local government
- 2012 -2010 - Horticulture course as educational leadership and reserve for training and supervision positions - Oranim College.
- 2015 - PhD Candidate in Education - University of UBB Cluj-Napoca, Romania.

Languages:

Hebrew - mother tongue

English - Very good level, reading writing and speaking

Arabic - speaking at a good level

Military Service:

1992-1990 - Force of the tripartite - each Division 319.

Miscellaneous - Winner of the "Ministerial Prize" (second place in Israel) - Minister of Education and Minister of the Environment Prize for leading educational projects and their integration into the community